

MUSICAL THEATRE TROUPE

TROUBLE AT CRUNCHEM HALL

Give your child the opportunity to be part of something bold, joyful, and unforgettable! Join us on-stage in “Trouble at Crunchem Hall: A Matilda-inspired Musical. Set primarily in the classroom, this spirited adaptation brings together all the beloved characters, with Matilda leading her classmates in a clever and courageous rebellion against the challenges they face at school. Filled with humor, heart, friendship, and hope for the future, this production gives every child a chance to shine. Whether delivering a line, singing in a group number, or simply being part of the ensemble, each student plays an important role in bringing this story to life.

There is nothing quite like the pride a child feels standing on stage, knowing they’ve worked hard and contributed to something meaningful. This is more than a class—it’s an experience your child will carry with them long after the final bow.
